PRESS RELEASE

MSH International Strengthens its Position in the Americas with the Acquisition of Imagine and Intrepid 24/7

Paris, October 9, 2017 – MSH international, a subsidiary of SIACI SAINT HONORE, has announced the acquisition of the insurance company Imagine Financial Ltd. and the travel assistance company Intrepid 24/7, both from the Canadian group Ingle International Inc. The new entity now employs 200 staff and includes an operations center in Calgary.

Following on from its recent entry into the German market with the BDAE Group and the acquisition of Alpha Lloyds in Dubai, MSH International is stepping up its growth with the takeover of two companies at Ingle International Inc. which have been specializing in insurance coverage for international travelers since 1946. With these acquisitions MSH International, one of the world leaders in expatriate insurance products and services, strengthens its position in travel insurance for students and retirees living abroad, expatriates, travelers (business or leisure) and people traveling to high-risk destinations.

They will also allow MSH International to consolidate its local and international networks and offer clients of the new entity a wide range of products together with easier access to medical care.

Frédéric Van Roekeghem, Group Deputy Managing Director of SIACI SAINT HONORE and Executive Director of MSH International, said: “Our partnership with Ingle will allow us to strengthen MSH International’s position in the Americas and provide our customers with an even broader range of innovative products and services.”

Robin Ingle, CEO of Imagine Financial Ltd. and Intrepid 24/7, will take on the role of CEO of MSH Americas, become a shareholder and sit on the Board of Directors of the new entity. He will also advise on global strategy for MSH International on international student and short-term travel insurance, “Business, pleasure, education, you name it. We take the risk out of travel by responding to the ever-changing needs of travelers with the best international insurance solutions possible, in any language, worldwide.”
